

Peace and tranquility in a beautiful rustic finca in the woods

Description

An exceptional estate in a privileged enclave that has remained in the hands of the family that built it 35 years ago. The dream of those who want to live independently, in contact with nature, in a pure environment and away from noise.

Walking through its vast 100,000 m² wooded grounds you can breathe peace and tranquillity, and the incredible views of the untouched surroundings and the blue sea in the background convey serenity and calm.

The Majorcan-style house with wooden beams and its covered porches occupy 500 m². Its 5 bedrooms and 4 bathrooms are distributed over two floors, complemented by a kitchen with character and its beautiful living room with large windows and hydraulic floors.

In addition, the L-shaped building has rooms in a single-storey space. Currently, it houses an artisan factory of natural cosmetic products, and could be converted into an apartment for guests or for the service.

From the porch and terrace in front of the house, you can enjoy completely open views of nature. At the back it has a large parking area and a natural rock pool integrated into the landscape.

The farm is completely legalized and has a certificate for the entire property.

It has water from its own well and electricity comes from its solar installation.

Sa Coma is a small and quiet enclave close to the Andratx Town Hall. The city of Palma and the airport are 40 km away and the nearest coast of Port d'Andratx is 8 km away.
