

Refurbished frontline apartment with a spacious terrace and blue mediterranean sea views

Description

In the sought-after area of La Mola, one of the most exclusive residential enclaves of Port d'Andratx, this elegantly modernised apartment blends Mediterranean character with contemporary comfort. With a living area of approx. 84 m², the layout is exceptionally convenient: two bedrooms, each with its own en-suite bathroom, one of which also has independent access and can therefore serve perfectly as a guest bathroom.

The bright, open-plan living area integrates a modern fitted kitchen that flows harmoniously into the lounge, creating a warm and functional atmosphere. From here, you step out onto the generous terrace – the true heart of the property – a privileged vantage point over the blue sea, where every sunset becomes a daily spectacle.

The apartment forms part of a well-maintained frontline community featuring a communal pool with sweeping Mediterranean views. A private parking space within the grounds is also included. Additional features include the fully equipped kitchen, built-in wardrobes, high-quality furnishings and, of course, the magnificent sea-facing terrace.

Port d'Andratx is one of Mallorca's most prestigious natural harbours, offering year-round vibrancy with restaurants, boutiques and essential services just a few minutes away. The connection to the Ma-1 allows access to Palma and the international airport in approximately 25–30 minutes.
